

Infant of Prague Adoption Service

Infant of Prague Adoption Service is a resource for voluntary adoption.

At Infant of Prague Adoption Service you are provided with:

- Professional counseling, at no cost, if you are pregnant or are the parent(s) of young children.
- Non-judgmental counseling to see if adoption is the right choice for you.
- Photo albums of prospective couples who have been thoroughly screened AND educated.
- The opportunity to personally select and meet the couple you have chosen for you child.
- A way to maintain contact with your child over the years through visits, letters with photos, and/or telephone calls.
- The opportunity to know, first hand, that you child is okay and well cared for by the parents you selected.
- The assurance that your child will know, from you, how much they are loved and why you chose adoption for them.

Is voluntary adoption planning something you want to learn more about? Call us at 447-3333. We are located in Fresno, but if you live out of town, you can call us toll-free at 1-800-994-2367.