

Infant of Prague
Central California Adoption Services

What is Infant of Prague? Infant of Prague – Central California Adoption Services is a full service, licensed agency that believes that all life is precious, and that each person matters.

We work with and empower all members of the adoption triad

(Adoptive Parents, Birth Parents, and Adopted Individuals).

- We provide expectant parents facing an unintended pregnancy with extensive information and nonjudgmental counseling in deciding what is best.
- For those who have already made an adoption plan, we offer support groups, therapy services, educational/trade scholarships, and annual retreats.
- We guide parents who want to build their family through adoption with infertility counseling, parenting classes, matching, and professional direction.
- For those who have already adopted, we offer lifelong support, connections, and resources.
- We strongly believe in child-centered adoption, and make sure that each child is placed in a healthy, safe, loving home, that provides openness with his or her birth family.
- We provide a positive alternative through voluntary adoption for children who might otherwise endure abuse, neglect and CPS involvement thus reducing the high rates of children in the foster care system.
- For children and adults who have been adopted, we offer counseling, educational/trade scholarships, post adopt services, and networking opportunities with similar individuals.
- For those who were placed through a closed/confidential adoption, IPAS provides reunion guidance, support, and counseling.
